Resolutions of a General Court of the Adventurers of the Royal African Company, held on Thursday the 26th of February,
17¹²₁₃.

THE Sub-Governour acquainted them that the Court of Assistants have dispatch'd several Ships for the Coast, with considerable Cargoes; and that other Ships are agreed for and taking in their Ladings, and that it is the Opinion of the Court of Assistants (which they propose to the General Court for their Concurrence.)

That in case the Privileges of their Charter shall be secured to them, so as they shall not be molested in their Trade by Interlopers, this Company submit to be obliged to Export annually to the Coast of Africa, in Goods and Merchandize, to the amount of One hundred thousand Pounds Sterling; and if there shall be any Complaint from the Planters, either as to quantity or price of Slaves, from time to time, to submit the Regulation thereof to her Majesty in Council.

To which, upon the Question being put, the General Court agreed Nemine Contradicente.

John Pery, Secretary.
